Thought Leadership & Advocacy

PayPal’s technology provides solutions for the financially underserved

In 2018, we strategically invested in seven start-ups, including Monese, an inclusive mobile banking service.

In collaboration with our partners, we’re helping small businesses access to funding in eligible small businesses. Since launching in 2013, more than 181K+ small businesses around the world have access to funding

Affordable solutions for the financially underserved

Inclusive Globalization site provides more information on how to support small business participation in global trade. Our partnerships with leading universities, such as Stanford and University of Cambridge, enable us to support small businesses and advocate for change, which is why we’ve committed to donating a portion of our profits to the causes we care about.
