Global Asset Protection

As you may have learned through the eBay Inc. for announcement of September 30, 2014, plans were made to separate eBay Inc. into two independent publicly traded companies: eBay Marketplace and PayPal.

As a result of this separation, there are now two separate and fully independent Global Asset Protection teams supporting the new eBay and PayPal businesses, each of which has a system allowing Law Enforcement to submit lawful requests for user data and transactional history consistent with the robust and seamless processes already utilized by our global law enforcement partners.

Both companies will continue to maintain highly transparent, productive, and collaborative relations with the law enforcement community and the content of the information provided will remain of the same high standard. As with any new company, slight changes in services provided will occur, and we commit to keeping you fully abreast of those in advance.

PayPal Holding, Inc.'s global portfolio of businesses enables hundreds of millions of people to pay online. PayPal Holdings, Inc. established the Global Asset Protection Team to promote the safe use of its platforms and to collaborate with local, federal and international law enforcement in apprehending and prosecuting criminals. Our diligence in this area is demonstrated by the arrests that are made and the trust that is built both within the community and our law enforcement and industry partners.

Resources for Law Enforcement Investigations and Service Levels

PayPal Holdings, Inc. developed a system to enable law enforcement officers seeking records for investigations related to the PayPal platform quickly and securely:

Safety Hub – PayPal Law Enforcement Tool is an online web-form designed for law enforcement and government agencies to submit their PayPal data requests, inclusive of uploading their supporting documents such as a letterhead, court order or subpoena. This site (<https://safetyhub.paypal.com>) may only be used by law enforcement personnel who will go through an authentication processes. The Safety Hub site replaces and eliminates the previous process of mailing, faxing or emailing requests to us. All requests must be submitted via Safety Hub – PayPal Law Enforcement Tool are still handled manually by our team and are processed in approximately 10 business days.
