Amendments to the PayPal Privacy Policy

At PayPal, it is important to us that you to understand our privacy practices and your privacy choices. That's why we updated and streamlined this information in an updated Privacy Policy to clarify the information we collect, how we protect it, use it and the choices and controls you have across various PayPal services. This updated Privacy Policy will replace the existing Privacy Policy for PayPal Services.

The ways we use and share your information will not change under our updated Privacy Policy. We will continue to keep your information secure, and we will never share your personal data with third parties for the third parties' own purposes without your consent. At the same time, we want you to be comfortable with the changes that we have made. A few notable updates include:

- Expanded Scope: We've combined our privacy practices for PayPal and Xoom services, websites and applications into one Privacy Policy.
- More Detailed Explanations: We've included more details about important features of our services and when you connect your PayPal account to third-party websites and platforms.
- Customized Experiences and Marketing: We clarified our marketing analytics practices to make it easier for you to understand how we and others we engage may provide you with targeted offers from PayPal, customized experiences and advertising on PayPal properties and on third party sites. We also explain how you can choose to limit your participation in these programs.

Our updated Privacy Policy will be effective on 10 May 2018. We encourage you to review the full Privacy Policy in advance here.

Clarifications in Treatment of Personal Data

We are clarifying that Sellers have their own obligations around how they collect, store and protect user personal data processed in connection with transactions fulfilled by the PayPal services. Various laws impose obligations on Sellers to maintain their own privacy policy that informs the Seller's customers about its privacy practices. The changes reflect a Seller's obligation to comply with these requirements.

Sincerely,
PayPal

Seller Protection for sellers in Korea, Taiwan, certain European countries, Middle East and Africa will be expanded to include eligible intangible items (excluding digital goods and licenses for digital content).

You can click here to view the complete terms of each of the Seller Protection terms set out in clause 9 of the User Agreement.

Changes to the User Agreement

The changes to the User Agreement are most relevant to sellers.

Clause 9 has included updated Seller Protection terms for Korea, Taiwan and the following countries in Europe, the Middle East and Africa: Andorra, Bahrain, Botswana, Croatia, Faroe Islands, Georgia, Greenland, Iceland, Israel, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Kuwait, Lesotho, Mauritius, Moldova, Monaco, Morocco, Mozambique, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Senegal, Serbia, South Africa and United Arab Emirates.

Seller Protection terms Taiwan and Korea

Seller protection for sellers in Taiwan and Korean will be expanded to include eligible intangible items excluding digital goods. Accordingly, the eligibility requirements for PayPal Seller Protection in these countries will change as follows:

“Eligibility for PayPal Seller Protection

You must meet all of these requirements to be eligible for PayPal Seller Protection:

- a. You receive payment via PayPal from a buyer’s PayPal Account for an eligible item;
- b. You must accept a single payment from one PayPal Account for the purchase (partial payment and/or payment in installments are excluded);
- c. For tangible items, you post the item to the shipping address on the “Transaction Details” page. If the item is delivered in person or picked up in person or if you post the item to a different address (for example, if the buyer asks that you send to another address on the basis that it is a “work address” or a “gift address”), then you will not be eligible for PayPal Seller Protection;
- d. Follow the delivery requirements described below;
- e. The transaction must be marked as either;
  - i. For tangible items: marked by PayPal as eligible or partially eligible for PayPal Seller Protection on your Account “Transaction Details” page. If it is marked eligible, protection for both Unauthorized Transaction and Item Not Received will apply. If it is marked partially eligible, protection for only Item Not Received will apply; or
  - ii. For intangible or virtual items or services: marked by PayPal as eligible for PayPal Seller Protection on your Account “Transaction Details” page. If it is marked eligible, protection for only Unauthorized Transaction and Item Not Received (for Chargebacks only) will apply.
- f. You must respond to PayPal’s requests for documentation or other information that is reasonably required by PayPal to investigate in a timely manner; and
- g. Your eligibility is not otherwise suspended.”

The items/transactions not eligible for PayPal Seller Protection will also be amended to the list below:

- Items that are not shipped to the recipient address as stated in the “Transaction Details” page. If you originally ship the item to the recipient address but the item is later redirected to a different address, you will not be eligible for PayPal Seller Protection. We therefore recommend not using a shipping service that is arranged by the buyer, so that you will be able to provide valid Proof of Shipping and Proof of Delivery (for tangible items).”

Effective Date: October 19, 2016

PayPal is changing its User Agreement. The amended User Agreement will be effective as to all PayPal users on October 19, 2016. We encourage you to review this Policy Update to familiarize yourself with the changes that are being made.

YOUR USE OF PAYPAL OR ITS SERVICES AFTER OCTOBER 19, 2016 MEANS YOU AGREE TO THESE CHANGES.

A summary of material changes is provided below:

A. Changes to the form of consent required for merchant surcharging (Section 3.4)

You agree that you will not impose a surcharge or any other fee for accepting PayPal as a payment method without our prior written consent. ### Amendments to the PayPal User Agreement

The update to the User Agreement is effective July 1, 2015. A summary of material changes is provided below. You can also click HERE to review the complete terms of the revised User Agreement in its entirety.

PayPal and eBay Separation

PayPal and eBay will be separate companies soon. We've updated the PayPal User Agreement to reflect how the PayPal services will work post separation given that PayPal and eBay will no longer be affiliates.

- Section 4.2

This section currently allows PayPal to debit your Account to pay PayPal or its parent company, eBay, for any amounts that are more than 180 Days past due. The revised section allows, post separation, PayPal to debit user's PayPal Account(s) and pay PayPal, an Affiliate or eBay Inc. for amounts that are 180 Days past due.

The revised section 4.2 reads as follows:

4.2 Setoff of Past Due Amounts. If you have a past due amount owed to PayPal, an Affiliate, or eBay, PayPal may debit your Account to pay any amounts that are more than 180 Days past due.

- Section 11.1(c)

If eBay decides in favor of your buyer under the eBay Money Back Guarantee program, this section provides PayPal your authorization to reimburse eBay or your buyer directly for the amount of the claim.

The revised section 11.1(c) reads as follows:

(c) Liability for claims filed under eBay's Money Back Guarantee program. If you are an eBay Seller and eBay makes a final decision pursuant to its eBay Money Back Guarantee program holding you liable to reimburse the buyer, then you authorize PayPal to remove funds from your Account in an amount not greater than the amount of such claim and remit such funds to eBay. If your balance is insufficient to cover the amount of such a claim, PayPal will place a hold on your Account. This hold will remain on your Account until: (1) the date that sufficient funds become available to cover the amount of such claim, at which time such funds will be removed from your Account; or (2) 20 Days from the date of eBay's final decision, at which time an amount not greater than the amount of such claim will be removed from your Account.

- Section 11.4

This section currently allows PayPal to use information it receives from third party partners such as eBay to place a hold on a user's PayPal Account. This section is being changed to reflect that PayPal may use information it receives from any third parties including eBay to place a hold on a user's PayPal Account.

The revised section 11.4 reads as follows:

11.4 Actions by PayPal - Holds.

- a. Risk-Based Holds. PayPal, in its sole discretion, may place a hold on any or all of the payments you receive when PayPal believes there may be a high level of risk associated with you, your Account, or any or all of your transactions. PayPal's determination may be based on different factors and PayPal may rely on information it receives from third parties. If PayPal places a hold on a payment, the funds will appear in your "pending balance" and the payment status will indicate the hold, for example it can show as "Completed - Funds not yet available." If PayPal places a hold on any or all of the payments you receive, PayPal will provide you with notice of our actions. PayPal will release the hold on any payment after 30 Days from the date the payment was received into your Account unless PayPal has a reason to continue to hold the payment such as (a) the receipt of a Dispute, Claim, Chargeback, or Reversal, (b) PayPal believes that you have violated the terms of this Agreement or any other Policy and that such a violation results in the need to continue holding the funds, or (c) PayPal believes that you may be engaging in potentially fraudulent or suspicious activity and/or transactions. In such an event, PayPal may continue holding the payment in your Account until the matter is resolved pursuant to this Agreement. PayPal, in its sole discretion, may release the hold earlier under certain circumstances, for example when you upload tracking information of the item you shipped.

- b. Disputed Transaction Holds. If a User files a Dispute, Claim, Chargeback or Reversal on a payment you received, PayPal may place a temporary hold on the funds in your Account to cover the amount of the liability. If you win the dispute or the transaction is eligible for PayPal Seller Protection, PayPal will lift the temporary hold. If you lose the dispute, PayPal will remove the funds from your Account. This process also applies to any claim that a buyer files directly with eBay through the eBay Money Back Guarantee program, provided that your Account is your reimbursement method for amounts you owe to eBay or to the buyer (as the case may be) under the terms of the eBay Money Back Guarantee program.

Changes to PayPal Buyer Protection

We are increasing the scope of PayPal Buyer Protection to now include coverage for intangible items. References to intangible items have been removed from the new Section 7.3 which reads as follows:

7.3 Ineligible Items. Payments for the following are not eligible for reimbursement under PayPal Buyer Protection:

- Real estate
- Businesses (when you buy a business)
- Vehicles, including motorcycles, caravans, aircrafts and boats
- Custom made items with SNAD issues
- Items that violate PayPal's Acceptable Use Policy
- Items which you collect in person, or arrange to be collected on your behalf, including at a retail point of sale
- Industrial machinery used in manufacturing
- Items equivalent to cash, including prepaid or gift cards
- Personal Payments

Even if your payment is not eligible for PayPal Buyer Protection, you can file a Dispute and resolve the issue directly with the Seller, however, PayPal will not find in your favor if you escalate a Dispute to a Claim when an item is not eligible for PayPal Buyer Protection.

Changes to PayPal Seller Protection

Although we are expanding PayPal Buyer Protection to buyers for intangible items, Seller Protection will not apply to intangible items. We are including a note in this section about this. In addition, we are adding a definition of Proof of Delivery for intangible or virtual items or services which can help a seller win a buyer's Item Not Received Buyer Protection Claim.

For Sellers in Mexico, the revised subsection 4 reads as follows:

Amendments to the PayPal Acceptable Use Policy

The update to the Acceptable Use Policy is effective July 1, 2015. A summary of material changes is provided below. You can also click HERE to review the complete terms of the revised Acceptable Use Policy in its entirety.

- Tobacco Products, E-cigarettes and Prescription Drugs and Devices

The Acceptable Use Policy currently prohibits use of PayPal for activities that violate applicable law or industry regulations regarding the sale of tobacco products or prescription drugs and devices. We're replacing that prohibition with some new policy language covering these types of items, as well as e-cigarettes. Under the new language, use of PayPal for cigarette transactions will be prohibited. In addition, merchants will be permitted to use PayPal for sales of non-cigarette tobacco products, e-cigarettes, and prescription drugs and devices only with PayPal's pre-approval.

The changes will be as follows:

- Section 5 under Prohibited Activities, which contains the current provisions related to tobacco products and prescription drugs and devices, will be removed.
- A new Section 2(c) under Prohibited Activities will read as follows:

You may not use the PayPal service for activities that: ... 2. relate to transactions involving ... (c) cigarettes ...

- The relevant parts of the chart under Activities Requiring Approval will be revised to read as follows:

PayPal requires pre-approval to accept payments for certain services as detailed in the chart below.

Service Requiring Pre-Approval	Contact Information
... selling ... non-cigarette tobacco products, e-cigarettes or prescription drugs/devices.	Please send contact information, business website URL and brief business summary to aup@paypal.com

- Hate, violence, racial intolerance and the financial exploitation of a crime

We're revising the provision of the Acceptable Use Policy related to hate, violence, racial intolerance and the financial exploitation of a crime. That provision will be moved from Section 2(e) to Section 2(f) under Prohibited Activities and read as follows:

You may not use the PayPal service for activities that: ... 2. relate to transactions involving ... (f) the promotion of hate, violence, racial intolerance or the financial exploitation of a crime ...

- Bribery and Corruption

We're adding to the Acceptable Use Policy an express prohibition against use of PayPal for payments related to bribery or corruption. A new Section 3(k) under Prohibited Activities will read as follows:

You may not use the PayPal service for activities that: ... 3. relate to transactions that ... (k) involve offering or receiving payments for the purpose of bribery or corruption.

- Gambling

The Acceptable Use Policy currently prohibits use of PayPal for gambling-related activities unless they are legal in the places where the operator and the customers are located and the operator has received prior approval from PayPal. We're making some changes to present that policy more clearly, including to clarify that it covers fantasy sports.

Here is some additional detail on the changes: Our policy on gambling-related activities is currently set out in Section 6 under Prohibited Activities. We're removing Section 6 and we're adding a new row to the chart under Activities Requiring Approval that sets out our policy on gambling-related activities.

In that new row, we're preserving the non-exclusive list of covered gambling-related activities contained in the current Acceptable Use Policy, with two changes. First, we're supplementing the list to clarify that fantasy sports are covered. Second, we're making a change to some language in the current Acceptable Use Policy related to games of skill. The current language indicates that games of skill are covered, whether or not they are legally defined as lotteries. The revised language will reference gambling instead of lotteries. That is, it will indicate that games of skill are covered, whether or not they are legally defined as gambling.

The relevant parts of the chart under Activities Requiring Approval will be revised to read as follows:

PayPal requires pre-approval to accept payments for certain services as detailed in the chart below.

Service Requiring Pre-Approval	Contact Information
Activities involving gambling, gaming and/or any other activity with an entry fee and a prize, including, but not limited to casino games, sports betting, horse or greyhound racing, fantasy sports, lottery tickets, other ventures that facilitate gambling, games of skill (whether or not legally defined as gambling) and sweepstakes, if	Please send contact information, business website URL and brief business summary to aup@paypal.com the operator and customers are located exclusively in jurisdictions where such activities are permitted by law.

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--

- Air Transport Services

We're adding a provision under which PayPal may be used in connection with certain air transport services only with PayPal's pre-approval. The relevant parts of the chart under Activities Requiring Approval will be revised to read as follows:

PayPal requires pre-approval to accept payments for certain services as detailed in the chart below.

Service Requiring Pre-Approval	Contact Information
Airlines and scheduled or non-scheduled charters/jets/air taxi operators ...	Please send contact information, business website URL and a brief business summary to compliance@paypal.com

- Transactions on eBay

The Acceptable Use Policy currently includes a provision under Transactions on eBay related to use of PayPal in support of eBay transactions. That provision requires, with respect to such use of PayPal, compliance both with the Acceptable Use Policy and with eBay's rules related to prohibited and restricted items set forth on eBay's website. In connection with the prospective separation of the eBay and PayPal businesses into independent publicly traded companies, we're removing that provision from the Acceptable Use Policy.

Amendment to the PayPal User Agreement

Effective Date: Nov 18, 2014

1. Clause 4.3 (“Negative Balances and Multiple Currencies”) of the PayPal User Agreement will be amended as follow:

4.3 Negative Balances and Multiple Currencies. If your Account has a negative balance, PayPal may set-off the negative balance with any funds that you subsequently add or receive into your Account. If you have multiple currency balances in your Account and one of the currency balances becomes negative for any reason, PayPal may set-off the negative balance by using funds you maintain in a different currency balance. If you open more than one Account, PayPal may set off the negative balance in one Account by using any balance that you maintain in your other Account(s). In the event that a negative balance is offset by PayPal pursuant to this paragraph, it may be bundled with another debit coming out of your Account.

2. Changes to eligibility requirements (clause 7.2 of the PayPal User Agreement) and Dispute Resolution process (clause 7.5 of the PayPal User Agreement) under PayPal Buyer Protection:

To be eligible for PayPal Buyer Protection, Users will be able to open a Dispute within 180 Days (with the exception of buyers in Latin America which must open a Dispute within 45 Days) of the date the Users sent the payment.

3. Clause 7.3 (“Ineligible Items”) of the PayPal User Agreement will be amended as follows:

7.3 Ineligible Items. PayPal Buyer Protection only applies to PayPal payments for certain tangible, physical goods. Payments for the following are not eligible for reimbursement under PayPal Buyer Protection:

- Intangible items, including Digital Goods (subject to exceptions as listed in Section 7.6)
- Services
- Real estate
- Businesses (when you buy a business)
- Vehicles, including motorcycles, caravans, aircrafts and boats
- Custom made items with SNAD issues
- Travel tickets, including airline flight tickets

- Items that violate PayPal's Acceptable Use Policy
  - Purchases made on eBay that violate eBay's Prohibited or Restricted Items Policy
  - Items which you collect in person, or arrange to be collected on your behalf, including at a retail point of sale
  - Industrial machinery used in manufacturing
  - Items equivalent to cash, including prepaid or gift cards
  - Personal Payments
4. Section 9 (“PayPal Seller Protection”) of the PayPal User Agreement will be amended to reflect that Sellers who sell or market to buyers in other countries should read the PayPal Buyer Protection policies of the countries in which the target buyers are based as these policies will apply to them as a Payment Recipient or Seller.
5. Clause 11.1(b) (“Liability for Claims under PayPal Buyer Protection”) of the PayPal User Agreement will be amended as follows:

1. Liability for Claims under PayPal Buyer Protection. If you are a Seller and you lose a Claim filed directly with PayPal, you will be required to reimburse PayPal for your liability. Where you receive payment from a PayPal Account holder in another country and we determine under the Buyer Protection policy of that country that the funds received should be returned or reversed, you will be required to reimburse PayPal for your liability (before receiving payment from a PayPal Account holder in another country, you should review the relevant PayPal Buyer Protection policies available here). Your liability will include the full purchase price of the item plus the original shipping cost (and in some cases you may not receive the item back), and the PayPal Fees that you were charged for the transaction. PayPal Seller Protection will cover your liability for eligible Claims based on Item not Received, and eligible Unauthorized Transactions - see Section 9 (PayPal Seller Protection) above.

If a buyer files a Significantly Not as Described (SNAD) Claim for an item he or she purchased from you, you will generally be required to accept the item back and refund the buyer the full purchase price plus original shipping costs. You will not receive a refund on your PayPal Fees. Further, if you lose a SNAD Claim because we, in our sole discretion, reasonably believe the item you sold is counterfeit, you will be required to provide a full refund to the buyer and you will not receive the item back. In some cases (for instance, if you lose a SNAD Claim because the item you sold is counterfeit) you might not receive the item back from the buyer (for instance, it may be disposed of or otherwise irreversibly dealt with). PayPal Seller Protection will not cover your liability for SNAD Claims.

When a currency conversion is required, it will be completed at a foreign exchange rate determined by a licensed financial institution, which is adjusted regularly based on market conditions. The exchange rate is adjusted regularly and may be applied immediately and without notice to you. The exchange rate includes a processing Fee expressed as a percentage above the wholesale exchange rate at which PayPal obtains foreign currency, and the processing fee is retained by PayPal. You may have the option (depending on the country you are residing in and the type of funding source) to Opt Out of currency conversion before you complete the transaction by selecting Other Conversion options on the Review Your Information page during checkout.

Where a currency conversion is offered by PayPal at the point of sale, you will be shown the exchange rate that will be applied to the transaction before you proceed with authorizing the payment transaction. By proceeding with your authorization of the payment transaction you are agreeing to the currency conversion on the basis of the exchange rate. Where a currency conversion is offered at the point of sale by the Merchant, not by PayPal, and you choose to authorize the payment transaction on the basis of the Merchant’s exchange rate and charges, PayPal has no liability to you for that currency conversion.

Where your payment is funded by a Debit or Credit Card and involves a currency conversion by PayPal, you consent to and authorize PayPal to convert the currency in place of your Credit or Debit card issuer.

9. A new paragraph is added to Exhibit B - Country-Specific Terms in relation with Morocco:

* The bank partner of PayPal for the withdrawal functionality charges a fee for each withdrawal. Upon enablement of the receive and withdraw functionalities, PayPal will provide You with additional information.

10. Other changes

Sections of the PayPal User Agreement have been amended to update or clarify existing wording and correct typographical errors.

Amendment to the PayPal User Agreement

Effective Date: May 14, 2014

1. Changes to Section 2 (“Sending Payments”) of the PayPal User Agreement regarding Cards as Payment Methods

Section 2.3 is inserted as follows:

“2.3 Cards as Payment Methods.By adding a debit card, credit card or prepaid card as a Payment Method, you are providing PayPal with continuous authority to automatically charge that card to obtain the relevant funds when the card is used as a Payment Method pursuant to this Agreement. You can stop the continuous authority in respect of any card by removing that card as a Payment Method in your Account Profile.”

2. Changes to Section 7 (“PayPal Buyer Protection”) of the PayPal User Agreement regarding Claim Resolution Process and No Double Recovery

The “Claim Resolution Process” part of Section 7.5 (“Dispute Resolution”) is amended as follows:

“Claim Resolution Process. Once a Dispute has been escalated to a Claim, PayPal will make a final decision in favor of the buyer or the Seller. You may be asked to provide receipts, third party evaluations, police reports, or anything else that PayPal specifies. PayPal retains full discretion to make a final decision in favor of the buyer or the Seller. In the event that PayPal makes a final decision in favor of the buyer or Seller, each party must comply with PayPal’s decision. PayPal will generally require the buyer to ship an item that the buyer claims is SNAD back to the Seller (at the buyer’s expense), and PayPal will generally require a Seller to accept the item back and refund the buyer the full purchase price plus original shipping costs. In the event a Seller loses a Claim, the Seller will not receive a refund on his or her PayPal or eBay fees associated with the transaction. If you are a Seller and you lose a SNAD Claim because the item you sold is counterfeit, you will be required to provide a full refund to the buyer and you will not receive the item back.”

Section 7.8 (“No Double Recovery”) is amended as follows:

“7.8 No Double Recovery. You may not file a Dispute/Claim, or receive a recovery, for a purchase under PayPal Buyer Protection if you have already received a recovery for that purchase directly from eBay, the Seller or another third party, or if you have already filed a case for that purchase with eBay, the Seller or another third party.”
