Currency Conversions

For any of the following types of transactions involving a currency conversion by PayPal, the transaction exchange rate will also include a currency conversion spread.

Converting payments in another currency

Type of Transaction	Currency Conversion Spread
• Paying for goods or services in a currency other than the currency the goods or services are listed in. • Sending money to a friend or family member such that they receive a different currency from the currency in which you pay. • Sending money using PayPal Payouts such that your recipients receive a different currency from the currency in which you pay.	4.00%, or such other amount as may be disclosed to you during the transaction.
• All other transactions	3.00%, or such other amount as may be disclosed to you during the transaction.

E-check Fees

Sometimes the sender of a payment you receive may use an E-check as a means of funding that payment from their bank account, in order to send it from their PayPal account. Please see the user agreement for more information about E-check. When you receive an E-check funded payment we apply the fee you agreed to pay to receive the payment up to a monetary cap indicated below (based on the currency received):
