Paying your invoice online

FAQs for your website and communications

How do I pay my invoice online?

Open your emailed invoice and click on the 'Review and pay' button. This will take you directly to a payment window. Complete your payment details and confirm.

What payment options are accepted?

You can pay using your credit card, debit card or PayPal account.

Is it secure?

We monitor transactions for fraud in real time to help keep your transactions safe and we protect your eligible sales with Seller Protection

How long does it take for my payment to go through?

We will be notified instantly that you have paid your bill.

What should I do if my PayPal Business Account is limited?

If your PayPal Business Account is limited, go to the Resolution Centre within your PayPal Business Account for more information on why the limitation was placed and how it can be removed. Generally, once you complete all the required steps, the limitation will be removed.

How is GST treated on PayPal transaction fees?

The transaction fees for the payment processing services charged by PayPal are input-taxed sales in Australia as these fees are considered as a financial service which is why there is no GST. Please seek independent professional tax advice.
