You can find details about changes to our rates and fees and when they will apply on our Policy Updates Page. You can also view these changes by clicking 'Legal' at the bottom of any web-page and then selecting 'Policy Updates'.

Domestic: A transaction occurring when both the sender and receiver are registered with or identified by PayPal as residents of the same country/territory.

International: A transaction occurring when the sender and receiver are registered with or identified by PayPal as residents of different countries/territories. Certain countries are grouped together when calculating international transaction rates. For a listing of our groupings, please access our Country/Territory Grouping Table.

International euro (EUR) or Swedish krona (SEK) transactions where both the sender and the receiver are registered with or identified by PayPal as resident in the European Economic Area (EEA) are treated as domestic transactions for the purpose of applying fees.

Country Code Table: We may refer to two-letter country/territory codes throughout our fee pages. For a complete listing of PayPal country codes, please access our Country Code Table.

ECheck Fees

Sometimes the sender of a payment you receive may use an ECheck as a means of funding that payment from their bank account, in order to send it from their PayPal account. Please see the user agreement for more information about EChecks. When you receive an eCheck funded payment we apply the fee you agreed to pay to receive the payment up to a monetary cap indicated below (based on the currency received):
