

Milestones

More than 15 years ago, PayPal was founded with the goal of making it easier to use money.

Today, we are committed to that same mission with a singular focus on making it faster, safer and more efficient for people to move and manage money. And, we continue to innovate to create products and services that power the potential of millions of people and businesses globally.

