This User Agreement ("Agreement") is a contract between you and PayPal and applies to your use of the PayPal Services. You must read, agree with and accept all of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement. In addition, you must read, agree with and accept any applicable agreements on the Legal Agreements page.

We may amend this Agreement at any time by posting a revised version on our website. The revised version will be effective at the time we post it. In addition, if the revised version includes a Substantial Change, we will provide you with 30 Days' prior notice of any Substantial Change by posting notice on the Policy Updates page of our website.

This is an important document which you must consider carefully when choosing whether to use the PayPal Services.

Please note the following risks of using the PayPal Services:

Payments received in your Account may be reversed at a later time, for example, if such a payment is subject to a Chargeback, Reversal, Claim or is otherwise invalidated. This means that for some of our Sellers, payments received into their Account may be returned to the sender or otherwise removed from their Account after they have been paid and/or delivered any goods or services sold.

If you are a Seller, you can help protect yourself from the risk of a payment being reversed from your Account by following the criteria set out in the Protection for Sellers section and by following the other guidance provided in the Security and Protection page accessible via every page of the PayPal website.

We may close, suspend, or limit your access to your Account or the PayPal Services, and/or limit access to your funds for up to 180 Days if you violate this Agreement, the PayPal Acceptable Use Policy, or any other agreement you enter into with PayPal.

If you wish to open a Dispute through PayPal's Online Resolution Centre you must do so within 45 Days of making your payment.

All right, title and interest in and to the PayPal website, any content thereon, the PayPal Services, the technology related to the PayPal Services, and any and all technology and any content created or derived from any of the foregoing is the exclusive property of PayPal and its licensors.

1.5 Assignment. You may not transfer or assign any rights or obligations you have under this Agreement without PayPal's prior written consent. PayPal reserves the right to transfer or assign this Agreement or any right or obligation under this Agreement at any time.

1.6 Password Security and Keeping Your Email and Address Current. You are responsible for maintaining adequate security and control of any and all IDs, passwords, personal identification numbers (PINs), or any other codes that you use to access the PayPal Services. You are also responsible for keeping your email address and street address up to date in your Account Profile.

1.7 Notices to You. You agree that PayPal may provide communications about your Account and the PayPal Services to you by posting it on our website, emailing it to the email address listed in your Account Profile, or mailing it to the street address listed in your Account Profile. Such communication shall be considered to be received by you within 24 hours of the time we post it to our website or email it to you, or within 3 Business Days after we send it to you by postal mail.

1.8 Notices to PayPal. Except as otherwise stated below in Section 12 (Resolution Procedures for Unauthorized Transactions and Processing Errors) and Section 14 (Disputes with PayPal), notice to PayPal must be sent by postal mail to: PayPal CA Limited, Attention: Legal Department, 2211 North First Street, San Jose, California 95131, United States.

1.9 Account History Statement. You have the right to receive an Account statement. You may view your Account history statement by logging into your PayPal Account and looking at your Account History subtab on the Account Overview page.

1.10 Calls to You; Mobile Telephone Numbers. By providing PayPal a telephone number (including a mobile telephone number), you consent to receiving autodialed and prerecorded message calls from PayPal at that number. If we determine that a telephone number you have provided to us is a mobile telephone number, we may categorize it as such in our systems and in your Account Profile, and you consent to receive text messages from us about your use of the PayPal Services at that number.

1.11 Taxes. All fees related to the PayPal Services are made free and clear of, and without any deduction or withholding for and on account of, any taxes, duties or other deductions. Any such deduction or withholding, if required by the laws of any country, shall be on your account and be borne by you.

2. Accounts.

2.1 Eligibility.

To be eligible to use the PayPal Services, you must be at least 18 years old and a resident of Canada or one of the countries listed on the PayPal WorldWide page. This Agreement applies only to Users who are residents of Canada. If you are a resident of another country, you may access the agreement that applies to you from our website in your country.

2.2 Personal, Premier and Business Accounts; Types of Transactions. We offer three different types of Accounts: Personal, Premier and Business Accounts. By opening a Premier or Business Account and accepting the terms as outlined in this Agreement, you attest that you are not establishing the Account primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

You may send money from, and receive money into, your Account, as described in more detail in Section 3 (Sending Money) and Section 4 (Receiving Money). You may also add money to your Balance using an available Payment Method, as described in more detail in Section 3, and withdraw money from your Balance, as described in more detail in Section 6 (Withdrawing Money).

2.3 Identity Authentication. You authorize PayPal, directly or through third parties, to make any inquiries we consider necessary to validate your identity. This may include asking you for further information that will allow us to reasonably identify you, requiring you to take steps to confirm ownership of your email address or financial instruments, ordering a credit report, or verifying your Information against third party databases or through other sources. We may also ask to see your driver's licence or other identifying documents at any time. If you use certain PayPal Services, federal law requires that PayPal verify some of your information. PayPal reserves the right to close, suspend, or limit access to your Account and/or the PayPal Services in the event we are unable to obtain or verify this information.

2.4 Credit Report Authorization. If you open a Premier or Business Account, you are providing PayPal with written instructions and authorization to obtain your personal and/or business credit report from a credit reporting agency. You are also authorizing PayPal to obtain your personal and/or business credit report: (a) when you upgrade your Personal Account to a Premier or Business Account, (b) when you request a product for which PayPal requires a review of your credit report, or (c) at any time PayPal reasonably believes there may be an increased level of risk associated with your Premier or Business Account.

2.5 Third Party Permissions. If you grant express permission to a third party to take specific actions on your behalf, or access particular information about your Account, either through your use of the third party's product or service or through your Account Profile, you acknowledge that PayPal may disclose the information about your Account that is specifically authorized by you to this third party. You also acknowledge that granting permission to a third party to take specific actions on your behalf does not relieve you of any of your responsibilities under this Agreement. Further, you acknowledge and agree that you will not hold PayPal responsible for, and will indemnify PayPal from, any liability arising from the actions or inactions of this third party in connection with the permissions you grant. You may change or remove these permissions at any time by changing your settings in your Account Profile.

3. Sending Money.

3.1 Sending Limits. We may, at our discretion, impose limits on the amount of money you can send through the PayPal Services, including money you send for purchases. You can view your sending limit, if any, by logging into your Account and clicking on the View Limits link on the Account Overview page. If you have a Verified Account, we may increase your sending limits.

3.2 Default Payment Methods. When you make a payment, if you have not selected a Preferred Payment Method, PayPal will fund your transaction in this order:

- a. Balance
- b. Instant Transfer from your bank account
- c. Debit card
- d. Credit card
- e. eCheck

Note: If you do not want to use your Balance, you can withdraw it before making a payment.

3.3 Preferred Payment Method. You may select a Preferred Payment Method each time you make a payment, except for a Preapproved Payment or a No Log-In Payment. For a Preapproved Payment or, in most instances, a No Log-In Payment, you can select a Preferred Payment Method when you provide your initial authorization for this payment and through the My Preapproved Payments section of your Account Profile (it may be called "Backup Payment Method").

If you select a Preferred Payment Method but have available Balance in your Account, your Balance will be used to fund your payment first. If you set eCheck as your Preferred Payment Method in your Account Profile, it will be used to fund your PayPal payments first, even if you have a Balance.

3.4 Payment Method Limitations. In order to manage risk, PayPal may limit the Payment Methods available for a transaction. In addition, Payment Methods may be limited if you make a PayPal payment through certain third party websites or applications. For PayPal Business Payments, you are limited to funding your PayPal payment with either (or both) your Balance or by eCheck. In all such cases, you may choose to continue with the transaction with the understanding that you may have fewer avenues available for dispute resolution should the transaction turn out to be unsatisfactory.

3.5 Bank Transfers. When Instant Transfer eCheck or a debit card is used as your Payment Method, or when you initiate an Add Funds transaction, you are requesting an electronic transfer from your bank account. For these transactions, PayPal will make electronic transfers via ACH from your bank account in the amount you specify. You agree that such requests constitute your authorization to PayPal to make the transfers. Once you have provided your authorization for the transfer, you will not be able to cancel the electronic transfer. You give PayPal the right to resubmit any ACH debit you authorized that is returned for insufficient or uncollected funds.

3.6 Refused and Refunded Transactions. When you send money, the recipient is not required to accept it. You agree that you will not hold PayPal liable for any damages resulting from a recipient's decision not to accept a payment made through the PayPal Services. Any unclaimed, refunded or denied payment will be returned to your Balance or to the original Payment Method. We will return any unclaimed payment to you within 30 Days of the date you initiated payment.

3.7 Merchant Processing Delay. When you send a payment to certain Merchants, you are providing an Authorization to the Merchant to process your payment and complete the transaction. The payment will be held as pending until the Merchant processes your payment. Some Merchants may delay processing your payment. In such an instance, your Authorization will remain valid for up to 30 Days. If your payment requires a currency conversion, the exchange rate, which will include the Currency Conversion Fee described in Section 8 (Fees), will be determined at the time the Merchant processes your payment and completes the transaction.

3.8 Preapproved Payments. A Preapproved Payment is a payment in which you authorize a Merchant to directly charge your Account on a one-time, regular, or sporadic basis. Preapproved Payments are sometimes called "subscriptions", "recurring payments", "preauthorized transfers" or "automatic payments". Within 2 Business Days of any Preapproved Payment made from your Account, you will receive a confirmation of this transaction by email.

3.9 Cancelling Preapproved Payments. You may cancel a Preapproved Payment at any time up to 3 Business Days prior to the date the payment is scheduled to be made. To cancel a Preapproved Payment, log in to your Account, access the Profile tab from the My Account tab, click "My Preapproved Payments" and follow the instructions to cancel the payment. Please keep in mind that Preapproved Payments are sometimes referred to as "subscriptions" or "recurring payments". If you cancel a Preapproved Payment you may still be liable to the Merchant for the payment and may be required to pay the Merchant through alternative means.

3.10 Accuracy of Information. You are responsible for confirming the accuracy of the information you provide about each payment you send, including the email address or telephone number of the recipient, and the amount of the transaction.

3.11 PayPal Mobile. PayPal Mobile allows you to access certain PayPal Services through your mobile phone. PayPal Mobile is not available in all countries. If you use PayPal Mobile you are responsible for any fees that your phone service provider charges, such as fees for SMS, data services, and any other fees that your phone service provider may charge. Your phone service provider is not the provider of the PayPal Services.

3.12 Credit Card Information. If your credit card account number changes or your credit card expiration date changes, we may acquire that information from our financial services partner and update your Account.

3.13 Digital Goods Micropayment Purchases. If you purchase Digital Goods from certain Merchants using PayPal, we may offer you the option to pay for those goods at a later date, at no additional cost to you ("Post Payment Option"). We may offer you this option at our discretion, which we may revoke at any time. The Post Payment Option is only enabled if you have no Balance in your Account. The amounts you pay using the Post Payment Option will be deducted from your Account no more than 21 Days following your initial purchase, or when your Digital Goods purchases using the Post Payment Option reach a certain amount that is no more than $25.00 CAD, whichever is earlier. This date and amount will be stated in your transaction details shown under your History in the My Account tab of your Account. If you use the Post Payment Option but subsequently change your settings through your Account Profile to pay for these purchases at the time you make them, you will not be able to switch back to the Post Payment Option for a period of 6 months.

4. Receiving Money.

4.1 Receiving Personal Payments.

If you are selling goods or services, you may not ask the buyer to send you a Personal Payment for the purchase. If you do so, PayPal may remove your ability to accept Personal Payments.

4.2 Receiving Limits. We may, at our discretion, impose limits on the amount of money you can receive through the PayPal Services. You can view your receiving limit, if any, by logging into your Account and clicking on the View Limits link on the Account Overview page. We may increase your receiving limit if you complete our customer identity verification process.

4.3 Use of PayPal on eBay. Sellers who offer PayPal as a payment method in their eBay listings must follow these requirements:

- Accept PayPal if the eBay listing includes PayPal as a payment method.
- Accept all PayPal Payment Methods from a buyer, including but not limited to eCheck and credit cards.
- Accept international PayPal transactions if the eBay listing offers shipping outside the US.
- Sellers may not charge a surcharge for accepting PayPal as a payment method.

4.4 Payment Review. Payment Review is a process by which PayPal reviews certain potentially high-risk transactions. If a payment is subject to Payment Review, PayPal will place a hold on the payment and provide notice to the Seller to delay shipping of the item. PayPal will conduct a review and either clear or cancel the payment. If the payment is cleared, PayPal will provide notice to the Seller to ship the item. Otherwise, PayPal will cancel the payment and the funds will be returned to the buyer. All payments that clear Payment Review will be eligible for coverage under PayPal Seller protection if they meet the PayPal Seller protection requirements. PayPal will provide notices to you by email and in the History subtab of your Account Profile.

4.5 Risk of Reversals, Chargebacks and Claims. When you receive a payment, you are liable to PayPal for the full amount of the payment sent to you plus any Fees if the payment is later invalidated for any reason. This means that, in addition to any other liability, you will be responsible for the amount of the payment sent by the sender, plus the applicable Fees listed in Section 8 (Fees) of this Agreement if you lose a Claim or a Chargeback, or if there is a Reversal of the payment. You agree to allow PayPal to recover any amounts due to PayPal by debiting your Balance. If there are insufficient funds in your Balance to cover your liability, you agree to reimburse PayPal through other means. If a sender of a payment files a Chargeback, the credit card issuer, not PayPal, will determine who wins the Chargeback.

4.6 Refund and Reversal Currencies. All refunds and reversals will be made in the same currency as the original transaction. If your transaction must be refunded or reversed and you do not have the correct currency available in your Balance, a currency conversion will be performed.

4.7 No Surcharges. You agree that you will not impose a surcharge or any other fee for accepting PayPal as a payment method. You may charge a handling fee in connection with the sale of goods or services, as long as the handling fee does not operate as a surcharge and is not higher than the handling fee you charge for non-PayPal transactions.

4.8 Taxes. It is your responsibility to determine what, if any, taxes apply to the payments you make or receive, and it is your responsibility to collect, report and remit the correct tax to the appropriate tax authority. PayPal is not responsible for determining whether taxes apply to your transaction, or for collecting, reporting or remitting any taxes arising from any transaction.

4.9 Receiving Payments from Student Accounts. PayPal may block your ability to receive payments from Student Accounts if you sell goods or services that may be illegal for minors to purchase under any applicable laws or regulations. This includes, but is not limited to, alcohol, tobacco or adult oriented materials.

4.10 Your Refund Policy and Privacy Policy. If you sell goods or services, we recommend that you have a published return policy and a published privacy policy on your website or at your point of sale.

4.11 Receiving Preapproved Payments. If you receive Preapproved Payments, you must comply with the following requirements:

- a. Authorization. You must receive your buyer's prior Authorization for the amount, frequency, and duration of the Preapproved Payment.
- b. Notice Requirements. If the amount of the Preapproved Payment varies, you must comply with one of the following three requirements:
 - i. You must allow your buyer to set both a minimum and maximum amount that you may charge for each Preapproved Payment, and you must stay within that range; or
 - ii. You must inform your buyer of his/her right to receive notice of the amount and date of each Preapproved Payment. If your buyer elects to receive such notice, you must provide the notice at least 10 Days prior to the date of the Preapproved Payment; or
 - iii. You must provide your buyer with the ability to receive notice in each of the following instances:
 1. For every Preapproved Payment;
 2. When the amount of the Preapproved Payment will fall outside the minimum and maximum amount agreed to by your buyer; and
 3. When the amount of the Preapproved Payment will differ from the prior Preapproved Payment by more than an amount agreed to by your buyer.

If your buyer elects to receive notice in any of these instances you must provide such notice at least 10 Days prior to the date of the Preapproved Payment.

- c. Required Cancellation Procedures for Preapproved Payments. You must provide buyers with the ability to cancel a Preapproved Payment within 3 Business Days of the scheduled date of the Preapproved Payment. In addition, if your buyer signed up for the Preapproved Payment through an online method, you must provide a simple and easily accessible online cancellation procedure. If your buyer cancels the Preapproved Payment, you may not charge for the Preapproved Payment.

4.12 No Log-In Payments. If you receive No Log-In Payments you must receive your buyer's Authorization to the payment amount prior to submitting the No Log-In Payment.

4.13 Micropayments for Digital Goods. To qualify to receive Micropayments for Digital Goods, you must submit an application, be approved by us, and have an Account in good standing. By applying for Micropayments for Digital Goods, you agree that for Digital Goods transactions you receive up to the amounts in the table below, if a buyer opens a Dispute, PayPal may reverse the transaction and remove the funds from your Account without requiring the buyer to escalate the Dispute to a Claim.

Each buyer will be limited to a maximum of three such reversals per month and after reaching this limit will be required to follow PayPal's standard dispute resolution process for any additional Disputes they file.

5. Account Balances.

5.1 Balances. You do not need to maintain a Balance in your Account in order to make payments. If you do hold a Balance, PayPal will hold your funds separate from its corporate funds, and it will not use your funds for its operating expenses or for any other corporate purposes. PayPal will not voluntarily make your funds available to its creditors in the event of bankruptcy. While your funds are in our custody, PayPal will combine your funds with the funds of other Users and place those pooled funds into Pooled Accounts with one or more banks. These Pooled Accounts will be held in PayPal's name for the benefit of its collective Users.

5.2 Assignment of Interest to PayPal. You agree that you will not receive interest or other earnings on the funds that PayPal handles as your agent and places in Pooled Accounts. In consideration for your use of the PayPal Services, you irrevocably transfer and assign to PayPal any ownership right that you may have in any interest that may accrue on funds held in Pooled Accounts. This assignment applies only to interest earned on your funds, and nothing in this Agreement grants PayPal any ownership right to the principal of the funds you maintain with PayPal. In addition to or instead of earning interest on Pooled Accounts, PayPal may receive a reduction in fees or expenses charged for banking services by the banks that hold your funds.

5.3 Negative Balances and Multiple Currencies. If your Account has a negative Balance, PayPal may setoff the negative Balance with any funds that you subsequently receive into your Account. If you have multiple currency Balances in your Account and one of the currency Balances becomes negative for any reason, PayPal may setoff the negative Balance by using funds you maintain in a different currency Balance, or by deducting amounts you owe PayPal from money you subsequently add or receive into your Account.

5.4 Risks of Maintaining Balances in Multiple Currencies. You are responsible for all risks associated with maintaining Balances in multiple currencies. You agree that you will not attempt to use multiple currencies for speculative trading.

5.5 Setoff of Past Due Amounts. If you have a past due amount owed to PayPal or a PayPal affiliate, including our parent company eBay, which amount is not the subject of a dispute, PayPal may debit your Account to pay any amounts that are more than 180 Days past due.

5.6 Security Interest. To secure your performance of this Agreement, you grant to PayPal a lien on and security interest in and to the funds held in your Account in the possession of PayPal.

Back to top

6. Withdrawing Money.

6.1 How to Withdraw Money. You may withdraw funds by electronically transferring them to your bank account or using your PayPal Debit Card (eligible Users only).

6.2 Withdrawal Limits. Depending on the degree to which you have Verified your Account, we may limit you to withdrawing no more than the equivalent of $500.00 USD per month. You can view your withdrawal limit, if any, by logging into your Account and clicking on the View Limits link on the Account Overview page. In addition, we may delay withdrawals of large sums of money while we perform a risk review.

7. Closing Your Account.

7.1 How to Close Your Account. You may close your Account at any time by following the instructions in your Account Profile. Upon Account closure, we will cancel any pending transactions and you will forfeit any Balances associated with Redemption Codes, unless otherwise legally prohibited. You must withdraw your Balance prior to closing your Account.

7.2 Limitations on Closing Your Account. You may not close your Account to evade an investigation. If you attempt to close your Account while we are conducting an investigation, we may hold your funds for up to 180 Days to protect PayPal, its affiliates, or a third party against the risk of Reversals, Chargebacks, Claims, fees, fines, penalties and other liability. You will remain liable for all obligations related to your Account even after the Account is closed.

8. Fees and Currency Conversion.

8.1 Fees Overview.

Fees are based on whether you are making a Purchase Payment, a Personal Payment or a PayPal Business Payment. Some Fees are expressed as a percentage of the payment amount. All Fees are in Canadian Dollars unless otherwise stated.

- a. For Purchase Payments, the recipient of the payment will always pay the Fee.
- b. For Personal Payments, the following applies:
 - The Fee depends on the Payment Method you use.
 - The Fee is paid by either the sender or recipient, not both.
 - The sender of the payment generally determines who pays the Fee at the time the sender makes the payment. If you send a Personal Payment from a third party (non-PayPal) website or by using a third party's product or service, then the third party will determine if the sender or recipient of the Personal Payment will pay the Personal Payment Fee. This will be disclosed to you by the third party before the Personal Payment is initiated.
 - It is free to send a Personal Payment to someone in Canada in Canadian Dollars if you use your bank or Balance as the exclusive Payment Method. If you use a different Payment method to send a Personal Payments Payment, the Fees set out below will apply.
 - Additional Fees apply if you are sending or receiving money to or from a country outside Canada, or transacting in a foreign currency.
 - If you use your credit card as the Payment Method for a Personal Payment, you may be charged a cash-advance fee by your credit card company.
 - In some instances, Personal Payment pricing may not be available. In these instances, all payments must be Purchase Payments.
 - Personal Payments may not be available on non-PayPal websites or other applications that offer you the ability to send a payment from your Account.
 - Personal Payments may not be sent to recipients in certain countries.
- c. For PayPal Business Payments, the PayPal Business Payment Fee is paid by the recipient unless it is disclosed to you before you send the payment that you, the sender, must pay this Fee.

8.2 Domestic Payments in Canadian Dollars. This applies when both the sender and recipient are in Canada and the payment is in Canadian Dollars.

Back to top10. Your Liability - Actions We May Take.*10.1 Your Liability.

- a. General. You are responsible for all Reversals, Chargebacks, Claims, fees, fines, penalties and other liability incurred by PayPal, a User, or a third party caused by or arising out of your breach of this Agreement, and/or your use of the PayPal Services. You agree to reimburse PayPal, a User, or a third party for any and all such liability.
- b. Liability for Claims under PayPal Purchase Protection. If you are a Seller and PayPal makes a final decision that you lose a Claim filed directly with PayPal, you will be required to reimburse PayPal for your liability. Your liability will include the full purchase price of the item plus the original shipping cost (and in some cases you may not receive the item back). You will not receive a refund of your PayPal fees. PayPal Seller protection may cover your liability—see Section 11 (Protection for Sellers) below.

If a buyer files a Significantly Not as Described (SNAD) Claim for an item they purchased from you, you will generally be required to accept the item back and refund the buyer the full purchase price plus original shipping costs. You will not receive a refund on your PayPal fees. Further, if you lose a SNAD Claim because we, in our sole discretion, reasonably believe the item you sold is counterfeit, you will be required to provide a full refund to the buyer and you will not receive the item back (it will be destroyed). PayPal Seller protection will not cover your liability.

- c. Liability for claims filed under eBay's Buyer Protection resolution process. If you are an eBay.com or eBay.uk Seller, eBay requires that you comply with the eBay Buyer Protection resolution process. As such, you have provided eBay with permission to make a final decision on a claim that a buyer files against you directly with eBay. If eBay makes a final decision that you lose a claim, you agree to allow PayPal to remove funds from your Account in order to reimburse your buyer or eBay for your liability. eBay Buyer Protection claims filed directly with eBay are not covered by PayPal Seller protection. Please see the US eBay Buyer Protection policy and the UK eBay Buyer Protection policy for more information. You will not receive a refund of your PayPal fees. If your Balance is not sufficient to reimburse your buyer or eBay, PayPal will place a hold on your Account until the earlier of: (1) when sufficient funds are added to your Balance to reimburse eBay for your liability at which time we will reimburse eBay in full, or (2) 20 Days from the date of eBay's decision that you lose the claim at which time we will remove your Balance to partially reimburse eBay for your liability.

10.2 Reimbursement for Your Liability. In the event that you are liable for any amounts owed to PayPal, PayPal may immediately remove such amounts from your Balance. If you do not have a Balance that is sufficient to cover your liability, your remaining Balance (if any) will be removed, your Account will have negative Balance up to the amount of your liability, and you will be required to immediately add funds to your Balance to eliminate the negative Balance. If you do not do so, PayPal may engage in collection efforts to recover such amounts from you.

10.3 Actions by PayPal – Restricted Activities. If PayPal, in its sole discretion, believes that you may have engaged in any Restricted Activities, we may take various actions to protect PayPal, eBay, other Users, other third parties, or you from Reversals, Chargebacks, Claims, fees, fines, penalties and any other liability. The actions we may take include but are not limited to the following:

- a. We may close, suspend, or limit your access to your Account or the PayPal Services (such as limiting access to any of your Payment Methods, and/or your ability to send money, make withdrawals, or remove financial Information);
- b. We may contact Users who have purchased goods or services from you, contact your bank or credit card issuer, and/or warn other Users, law enforcement, or impacted third parties of your actions;
- c. We may update inaccurate Information you provided us;
- d. We may refuse to provide the PayPal Services to you in the future;
- e. We may hold your funds for up to 180 Days if reasonably needed to protect against the risk of liability or if you have violated our Acceptable Use Policy;
- f. We may take legal action against you; and
- g. If you violate the Acceptable Use Policy, then in addition to the above actions you will be liable to PayPal for the amount of PayPal's damages caused by your violation of the Acceptable Use Policy. You acknowledge and agree that $2,500.00 CAD per violation of the Acceptable Use Policy is presently a reasonable minimum estimate of PayPal's actual damages considering all currently existing circumstances, including the relationship of the sum to the range of harm to PayPal that reasonably could be anticipated because due to the nature of the violations of the Acceptable Use Policy, actual damages would be impractical or extremely difficult to calculate. PayPal may deduct such damages directly from any existing Balance in the offending Account, or any other Account you control.

PayPal, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to terminate this Agreement, access to its website, or access to the PayPal Services for any reason and at any time upon notice to you and payment to you of any unrestricted funds held in custody for you.

10.4 Actions by PayPal – Holds.

- a. Risk-Based Holds. PayPal, in its sole discretion, may place a hold on any or all of the payments you receive when PayPal believes there may be a high level of risk associated with you, your Account, or any or all of your transactions. PayPal's determination may be based on a number of different factors and PayPal may rely on information it receives from its third party partners such as eBay. If PayPal places a hold on a payment, the funds will appear in your "Pending Balance" and the payment status will show as "Completed - Funds not yet available". If PayPal places a hold on any or all of the payments you receive PayPal will provide you with notice of our actions. PayPal will release the hold on any payment after 21 Days from the date the payment was received into your Account unless you receive a Dispute, Claim, Chargeback, or Reversal or PayPal has taken another action permitted under this Section 10. PayPal, in its sole discretion, may release the hold earlier under certain circumstances. If you receive a Dispute, Claim, Chargeback, or Reversal, PayPal may continue holding the payment in your Account until the matter is resolved pursuant to this Agreement.
- b. Disputed Transaction Holds. If a User files a Dispute, Claim, Chargeback or Reversal on a payment you received, PayPal may place a temporary hold on the funds in your Account to cover the amount of the liability. If you win the dispute or the transaction is eligible for PayPal Seller protection, PayPal will lift the temporary hold. If you lose the dispute, PayPal will remove the funds from your Account. This process also applies to claims that a buyer files directly with eBay through the eBay resolution process if your Account is your reimbursement method for buyer claims.

10.5 Actions by PayPal – Reserves. PayPal, in its sole discretion, may place a Reserve on funds held in your Premier or Business Account when PayPal believes there may be a high level of risk associated with your Account. If PayPal places a Reserve on funds in your Account, they will be shown as "pending" in your PayPal Balance. If your Account is subject to a Reserve, PayPal will provide you with notice specifying the terms of the Reserve. The terms may require that a certain percentage of the amounts received into your Account are held for a certain period of time, or that a certain amount of money is held in reserve, or anything else that PayPal determines is necessary to protect against the risk associated with your Account. PayPal may change the terms of the Reserve at any time by providing you with notice of the new terms.

10.6 Actions by PayPal - Account Closure, Termination of Service, Limited Account Access; Confidential Criteria. If we close your Account or terminate your use of the PayPal Services for any reason, we will provide you with notice of our actions. If we limit access to your Account, including through a Reserve or hold, we will provide you with notice of our actions, and the opportunity to request restoration of access if, in our sole discretion, we deem it appropriate. Further, you acknowledge that PayPal's decision to take certain actions, including limiting access to your Account by placing holds or imposing Reserves, may be based on confidential criteria that is essential to our management of risk and the security of Users' Accounts and the PayPal system. You agree that PayPal is under no obligation to disclose the details of its risk management or its security procedures to you.

- Intangible items, including Digital Goods, and services.
- PayPal Direct Payments.
- Virtual Terminal Payments.
- PayPal Business Payments.
- Items that are not shipped to the recipient's shipping address on the Transaction Details Page. If you originally ship the item to the shipping address on the Transaction Details Page but the item is later redirected to a different address, you will not be eligible for PayPal Seller Protection. We therefore recommend not using a shipping service that is arranged by the buyer, so that you will be able to provide valid proof of shipping and delivery.

12. Resolution Procedures for Unauthorized Transactions and Processing Errors.

(Previously called the Electronic Funds Transfer Rights and Error Resolution Policy)

12.1 Protection for Unauthorized Transactions and Processing Errors. When an unauthorized transaction or processing error occurs in your Account, including unauthorized transactions that occur because your PayPal Debit Card or PayPal Mobile-activated phone has been lost or stolen, PayPal will cover you for the full amount of every eligible unauthorized transaction or processing error as long as you follow the procedures set out below in Section 12.2.

An unauthorized transaction is a type of error that occurs when money is sent from your Account that you did not authorize and that did not benefit you. For example, if someone steals your password, uses the password to access your Account, and sends a payment from your Account, an unauthorized transaction has occurred. If you give someone access to your Account (by giving them your login information) and they conduct transactions without your knowledge or permission, you are responsible for any resulting use. These transactions are not covered under any PayPal protection programs.

Examples of processing errors include: when money is either incorrectly taken from your Account or incorrectly placed into your Account; when transactions are incorrectly recorded in your Account; if you send a payment and it is debited twice from your Account; if a transaction is missing from, or not properly identified in your Account history statement; if you receive an incorrect amount of money at an ATM; and if there is a computational or mathematical error by PayPal.

You may request documentation or information regarding your Account or transaction to determine whether an unauthorized transaction or processing error exists by contacting us through the Contact Us link at the bottom of each page of the PayPal website.

12.2 Notification Requirements.

- a. You should immediately notify PayPal if you believe:
 - there has been an unauthorized transaction or unauthorized access to your Account;
 - there is an error in your Account history statement (you can access your Account history by logging into your Account and clicking on a link to "View all of your transactions") or your transaction confirmation sent to you by email;
 - your password or PayPal Mobile PIN has been compromised;
 - your PayPal Debit Card or PayPal Mobile-activated phone has been lost, stolen or deactivated; or
 - you need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or transaction confirmation.
- b. To be eligible for 100% protection for errors in your Account, you must notify us within 60 Days after any unauthorized transaction or processing error first appears in your Account history statement. We will extend the 60 Day time period if a good reason, such as a hospital stay, kept you from notifying us within 60 Days.

You should regularly log into your Account and review your Account history statement to ensure that there has not been an unauthorized transaction or processing error. PayPal will also send an email to the primary email address you have provided in order to notify you of each transaction from your Account. You should also review these transaction confirmations to ensure that each transaction was authorized and is accurate.

For unauthorized transactions or processing errors involving your PayPal Debit Card, notify us as follows:

- Log into your Account, go to the "Account Overview" page, select the transaction details for the transaction you wish to dispute and then follow the directions. Please print and sign the completed form, then mail it to us (PayPal, Attn: PayPal Debit Card Department, P.O. Box 45950, Omaha, NE 68145-0950, United States) or send it by fax to 303-395-2855; or
- Telephone PayPal Customer Service at (402) 935-7733.

For unauthorized transactions or processing errors in your Account, notify us as follows:

- Use this form to file an error report in the PayPal Resolution Centre; or
- Write to PayPal, Attn: Error Resolution Department, P.O. Box 45950, Omaha, NE 68145-0950, United States; or
- Telephone PayPal Customer Service at (402) 935-7733.

When you notify us, provide us with all of the following information:

- Your name and email address registered to your Account;
- A description of any suspected unauthorized transaction or processing error and an explanation as to why you believe it is incorrect or why you need more information to identify the transaction; and
- The dollar amount of any suspected unauthorized transaction or processing error.

If you notify us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 Business Days. During the course of our investigation, we may request additional information from you.

12.3 PayPal Actions after Receipt of Your Notification.

Once you notify us of any suspected unauthorized transaction or processing error, or we otherwise learn of one, we will do the following:

- We will conduct an investigation to determine whether there has been an unauthorized transaction or processing error that is eligible for protection.
- We will complete our investigation within 10 Business Days of the date we received your notification of the suspected unauthorized transactions or processing error. If your Account is new (the first transaction from your Account was less than 30 Business Days from the date you notify us), we may take up to 20 Business Days to complete this investigation. If we need more time, we may take up to 45 Days to complete our investigation (or up to 90 Days for new Accounts, or if your transaction was at a point of sale where you were physically present, or a foreign initiated transaction).

If we decide that we need more time to complete our investigation, we will provisionally credit your Account for the amount of the suspected error. You will receive the provisional credit within 10 Business Days of the date we received your notice (or 20 Business Days for new Accounts). This will allow you to have use of the money until we complete the investigation. We will notify you of the provisional credit within 2 Business Days of the crediting. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 Business Days (or 20 Business Days for new Accounts), we will not provisionally credit your Account.

- We will inform you of our decision within 3 Business Days after completing our investigation.

If we determine that there was an error, we will promptly credit the full amount of the error into your Account within 1 Business Day of our determination. Or, if you have already received a provisional credit, you will be allowed to retain those amounts.

If we decide that there was not an error, we will include an explanation of our decision in our email to you. If you received a provisional credit, we will remove it from your Account and notify you of the date and amount of the debit. You may request copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

12.4 PayPal Processing Errors.

We will rectify any processing error that we discover. If the error results in your receipt of less than the correct amount to which you are entitled, PayPal will credit your Account for the difference. If the error results in your receipt of more than the correct amount to which you are entitled, PayPal will debit the extra funds from your Account. If the error resulted in our not completing a transaction on time or in the correct amount, we will be liable for your losses or damages directly caused by this failure, unless: (a) through no fault of ours, you did not have enough available funds to complete the transaction, (b) our system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transaction, or (c) circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood or loss of Internet connection) prevented the transaction, despite our reasonable precautions.

Back to top

13. Protection for Buyers.

13.1 Types of Problems Covered. PayPal Purchase Protection (also known as PayPal Buyer Protection) helps you if you encounter either of these problems:

- You did not receive the item you paid for with PayPal – “Item Not Received” (INR); or
- You received an item you paid for with PayPal but it is “Significantly Not as Described” (SNAD) (as described below)

If your problem is a transaction that you did not authorize, please report the unauthorized transaction through the Security and Protection page.

An item is “Significantly Not as Described” if it is materially different from what the Seller described in the item listing. Here are some examples:

- You received a completely different item. For example, you purchased a book and received a DVD or an empty box.
- The condition of the item was misrepresented. For example, the description when you bought the item said “new” and the item was used.
- The item was advertised as authentic but is not authentic.
- The item is missing major parts or features which were not disclosed in its description when you bought the item.
- You purchased three items from a Seller but only received two.
- The item was damaged during shipment.

An item is not Significantly Not as Described if it is materially similar to the Seller’s item listing description. Here are some examples:

- The defect in the item was correctly described by the Seller.
- The item was properly described but you didn’t want it after you received it.
- The item was properly described but did not meet your expectations.
- The item has minor scratches and was listed as used condition.

13.2 Eligibility Requirements.

a. To be eligible for PayPal Purchase Protection you must meet all of the following requirements:

- Pay for the eligible item from your Account.
- Pay for the full amount of the item with one payment. Items purchased with multiple payments – like a deposit followed by a final payment – are not eligible.
- Send the payment to the Seller through:
 - the eBay “Pay Now” button or the eBay invoice; or
 - the “Send Money” button of your Account by selecting “eBay Item” and entering your eBay User ID and the eBay item number for purchases on eBay website; or
 - the Send Money tab on the PayPal website, by clicking the “Purchase” tab, or by selecting the “Checkout with PayPal” button or otherwise selecting PayPal as part of a Seller’s checkout flow.
- Open a Dispute within 45 Days of the date you sent the payment – then follow the online dispute resolution process described below under Dispute Resolution.

- Have an Account in good standing.
- b. For items purchased on eBay look for either a PayPal or eBay purchase or buyer protection message in the eBay listing. If you see a message, and you meet the eligibility requirements, then your purchase is covered by PayPal Purchase Protection. The purchase or buyer protection message will vary based on the eBay website. The message must appear on the top part of the listing and not under the “Description” or “Shipping and Payments” tabs. If the listing does not include the purchase or buyer protection message, then it is not eligible for PayPal Purchase Protection.

13.3 Ineligible Items. PayPal Purchase Protection only applies to PayPal payments for certain tangible, physical goods. Payments for the following are not eligible for reimbursement under PayPal Purchase Protection:

- Intangible items, including Digital Goods
- Services
- Real estate, including residential property
- Businesses
- Vehicles, including motor vehicles, motorcycles, caravans, aircraft and boats
- Custom made items
- Travel tickets, including airline flight tickets
- Items prohibited by the PayPal Acceptable Use Policy
- Items which you collect in person, or arrange to be collected on your behalf, including at the retail point of sale
- Items that violate eBay's Prohibited or Restricted Items Policy
- Industrial machinery used in manufacturing
- Items equivalent to cash, including prepaid or gift cards
- PayPal Direct Payments
- Virtual Terminal Payments
- Personal Payments

Even if your payment is not eligible for PayPal Purchase Protection, you can file a Dispute and try to resolve the issue directly with the Seller; however, PayPal will generally not find in your favor if you escalate a Dispute to a Claim for an item which is not eligible for PayPal Purchase Protection.

13.4 Coverage Amount. If you are eligible for PayPal Purchase Protection and PayPal finds in your favor on your Claim, PayPal will reimburse you for the full purchase price of the item and original shipping costs – with no cap on coverage.

PayPal will not reimburse you for the return shipping costs that you incur to return a Significantly Not As Described item to the Seller or other party specified by PayPal. If the Seller presents evidence that they delivered the goods to your address, PayPal may find in favor of the Seller for an Item Not Received claim even if you did not receive the goods.

13.5 Dispute Resolution. If you are unable to resolve a problem directly with a Seller, you can go to the Resolution Centre and follow this process:

- Open a Dispute. Open a Dispute within 45 Days of the date you made the payment for the item you would like to dispute to negotiate with the Seller for resolution of the Dispute. We will place a hold on all funds related to the transaction in the Seller's Account until the Dispute is resolved or closed.
- Escalate the Dispute to a Claim. If you and the Seller are unable to come to an agreement, you can escalate the Dispute to a Claim within 20 Days after opening the Dispute.

You must wait at least 7 Days from the date of payment to escalate a Dispute for an Item Not Received (INR), unless the Dispute is for the equivalent of $2,500 U.S. Dollars or more (or currency equivalent). If you do not escalate the Dispute to a Claim within 20 Days, PayPal will close the Dispute.

- Respond to PayPal's requests for information in a timely manner. During the Claim process, PayPal may require you to provide documentation to support your position. You may be asked to provide receipts, third party evaluations, police reports, or anything else that PayPal specifies.
- Comply with PayPal's shipping requests in a timely manner. For Significantly Not as Described (SNAD) Claims, PayPal may require you, at your expense, to ship the item back to the Seller, or to PayPal, or to a third party and to provide proof of delivery.

For transactions that total less than $325 CAD, proof of delivery is confirmation that can be viewed online and includes the delivery address, delivery date, and the URL to the shipping company's web site if you've selected “Other” in the shipping drop down menu. For transactions that total $325 CAD or more, you must get signature confirmation of delivery.

- Claim Resolution Process. Once a Dispute has been escalated to a Claim, PayPal will make a final decision in favor of the buyer or the Seller. You may be asked to provide receipts, third party evaluations, police reports, or anything else that PayPal specifies. PayPal retains full discretion to make a final decision in favor of the buyer or the Seller based on any criteria PayPal deems appropriate. In the event that PayPal makes a final decision in favor of the buyer or Seller, each party must comply with PayPal's decision. PayPal will generally require the buyer to ship an item that the buyer claims is SNAD back to the Seller (at the buyer's expense), and PayPal will generally require a Seller to accept the item back and refund the buyer the full purchase price plus original shipping costs. In the event a Seller loses a Claim, the Seller will not receive a refund on his or her PayPal or eBay fees associated with the transaction. If you lose a SNAD Claim because the item you sold is counterfeit, you will be required to provide a full refund to the buyer and you will not receive the item back (it will be destroyed).

13.6 Digital Goods Micropayment Disputes and Claims. If you file a Dispute for a Digital Goods purchase of up to the amounts in the table below, PayPal may, at our discretion, reverse the transaction without requiring you to escalate the Dispute to a Claim.

Currency	Amount
Australian Dollar:	$9.99 AUD
Brazilian Real:	7.99 BRL
Canadian Dollar:	$3.99 CAD
Czech Koruna:	99.99 CZK

Currency	Amount
New Zealand Dollar:	$9.99 NZD
Norwegian Krone:	29.99 NOK
Philippine Peso:	499.99 PHP
Polish Zlotych:	19.99 PLN

Danish Krone:	24.99 DKK	Singapore Dollar:	$9.99 SGD
Euro:	€3.99 EUR	Swedish Krona:	34.99 SEK
Hong Kong Dollar:	$49.99 HKD	Swiss Franc:	4.99 CHF
Hungarian Forint:	999 HUF	Taiwan New Dollar:	249.00 TWD
Israeli Shekel:	15.99 ILS	Thai Baht:	249.99 THB
Japanese Yen:	¥999 JPY	U.K. Pounds Sterling:	£3.99 GBP
Mexican Peso:	$39.99 MXN	U.S. Dollar:	$3.99 USD

PayPal may limit the number of automatic reversals that you benefit from. If these are limited, you will still be able to follow PayPal's standard dispute resolution processes described in this Section 13 to attempt to resolve the issue with the Seller directly.

13.7 Relationship between PayPal's protection programs and Chargebacks. Credit card Chargeback rights, if they apply, are broader than PayPal's protection programs. Chargebacks may be filed more than 45 Days after the payment, may cover unsatisfactory items even if they do not qualify as SNAD, and may cover intangible items. You may pursue a Dispute/Claim with PayPal, or you may contact your credit card company and pursue your Chargeback rights. You may not pursue both at the same time or seek a double recovery. If you have an open Dispute or Claim with PayPal, and also file a Chargeback with your credit card company, PayPal will close your Dispute or Claim, and you will have to rely solely on your Chargeback rights.

If PayPal does not make a final decision on your Claim until after your credit card issuer's deadline for filing a Chargeback, and because of our delay you recover less than the full amount you would have been entitled to recover from the credit card issuer, we will reimburse you for the remainder of your loss (minus any amount you have already recovered from the Seller).

Before contacting your card issuer or filing a Dispute with PayPal, you should contact the Seller to resolve your issue in accordance with the Seller's return policy as stated on their auction or website.

13.8 No Double Recovery. You may not file a Dispute/Claim, or receive a recovery, for a purchase under PayPal Purchase Protection if you have already received a recovery for that purchase directly from eBay or the Seller or if you have already filed a case for that purchase with eBay.

14. Disputes with PayPal.

14.1 Contact PayPal First. If a dispute arises between you and PayPal, our goal is to learn about and address your concerns and, if we are unable to do so to your satisfaction, to provide you with a neutral and cost effective means of resolving the dispute quickly. Disputes between you and PayPal regarding the PayPal Services may be reported to Customer Service online through the PayPal Help Centre at any time, or by calling (402) 935-2050 from 6 AM to midnight Central Time.

14.2 Arbitration. For any claim (excluding claims for injunctive or other equitable relief) where the total amount of the award sought is less than $10,000.00 CAD, the party requesting relief may elect to resolve the dispute in a cost effective manner through binding non-appearance-based arbitration. If a party elects arbitration, that party will initiate such arbitration through an established alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") provider mutually agreed upon by the parties. The ADR provider and the parties must comply with the following rules: a) the arbitration shall be conducted by telephone, online and/or be solely based on written submissions, the specific manner shall be chosen by the party initiating the arbitration; b) the arbitration shall not involve any personal appearance by the parties or witnesses unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties; and c) any judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

14.3 Law and Forum for Disputes. Except as otherwise agreed by the parties or as described in Section 14.2 above, you agree that any claim or dispute you may have against PayPal must be resolved by a court located in New Brunswick, Canada. You agree to submit to the personal jurisdiction of the courts located in New Brunswick, Canada, for the purpose of litigating all such claims or disputes. This Agreement shall be governed in all respects by the laws of New Brunswick, Canada.

14.4 No Waiver. Our failure to act with respect to a breach by you or others does not waive our right to act with respect to subsequent or similar breaches.

14.5 Indemnification. You agree to defend, indemnify and hold PayPal, its parent, officers, directors and employees harmless from any claim or demand (including attorneys' fees) made or incurred by any third party due to or arising out of your breach of this Agreement and/or your use of the PayPal Services.

14.6 Assumption of Rights. If PayPal pays out a Claim, Reversal or Chargeback that you file against a recipient of your payment, you agree that PayPal assumes your rights against the recipient and third parties related to the payment, and may pursue those rights directly or on your behalf, at PayPal's discretion.

14.7 Release of PayPal. If you have a dispute with one or more Users, you release PayPal (and our officers, directors, agents, joint ventures and employees) from any and all Claims, demands and damages (actual and consequential) of every kind and nature arising out of or in any way connected with such disputes.

15. General Provisions.

15.1 Limitations of Liability. IN NO EVENT SHALL WE, OUR PARENT, EMPLOYEES OR OUR SUPPLIERS BE LIABLE FOR LOST PROFITS OR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH OUR WEB SITE, THE PAYPAL SERVICES, OR THIS AGREEMENT (HOWEVER ARISING, INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE). Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you. OUR LIABILITY, AND THE LIABILITY OF OUR PARENT, EMPLOYEES AND SUPPLIERS, TO YOU OR ANY THIRD PARTIES IN ANY CIRCUMSTANCE IS LIMITED TO THE ACTUAL AMOUNT OF DIRECT DAMAGES.

15.2 No Warranty. PAYPAL, OUR PARENT, EMPLOYEES AND OUR SUPPLIERS PROVIDE THE PAYPAL SERVICES "AS IS" AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OR CONDITION, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY. PAYPAL, OUR PARENT, EMPLOYEES AND OUR SUPPLIERS SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIM ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF TITLE, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. PayPal does not have any control over the products or services that are paid for with the PayPal Services and PayPal cannot ensure that a buyer or a Seller you are dealing with will actually complete the transaction or is authorized to do so. PayPal does not guarantee continuous, uninterrupted or secure access to any part of the PayPal Services, and operation of our site may be interfered with by numerous factors outside of our control. PayPal will make reasonable efforts to ensure that requests for electronic debits and credits involving bank accounts, credit cards, and cheque issuances are processed in a timely manner but PayPal makes no representations or warranties regarding the amount of time needed to complete processing because the PayPal Services are dependent upon many factors outside of our control, such as delays in the banking system or the U.S. or international mail service. Some states do not allow the disclaimer of implied warranties, so the foregoing disclaimers may not apply to you. This paragraph gives you specific legal rights and you may also have other legal rights that vary from state to state.

15.3 PayPal Shopping. PayPal Shopping is part of the PayPal website that features Merchants' offers and enables product search. PayPal does not warrant that product descriptions, pricing, search results, User ratings and reviews or any other content on PayPal Shopping is accurate, complete, reliable or current. PayPal Shopping is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute an endorsement by PayPal of any product, service or Merchant.

15.4 License Grant. If you are using PayPal software such as an API, developer's toolkit or other software application that you have downloaded to your computer, device, or other platform, then PayPal grants you a revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use PayPal's software in accordance with the documentation. This license grant includes the software and all updates, upgrades, new versions and replacement software for your personal use only. You may not rent, lease or otherwise transfer your rights in the software to a third party. You must comply with the implementation and use requirements contained in all PayPal documentation accompanying the PayPal Services. If you do not comply with PayPal's implementation and use requirements you will be liable for all resulting damages suffered by you, PayPal and third parties. You agree not to alter, reproduce, adapt, distribute, display, publish, reverse engineer, translate, disassemble, decompile or otherwise attempt to create any source code which is derived from the software. You acknowledge that all rights, title and interest to PayPal's software are owned by PayPal. Any third party software application you use on the PayPal website is subject to the license you agreed to with the third party that provides you with this software. PayPal does not own, control nor have any responsibility or liability for any third party software application you elect to use on the PayPal website and/or in connection with the PayPal Services. If you are using the PayPal Services on the PayPal website, or other website or platform hosted by PayPal, or a third party, and are not downloading PayPal's software or using third party software applications on the PayPal website, then this section does not apply to your use of the hosted PayPal Services.

15.5 Complete Agreement. This Agreement, along with any applicable policies and agreements on the Legal Agreements page on the PayPal website, sets forth the entire understanding between you and PayPal with respect to the PayPal Services. Sections 1 (Our Relationship with You), 7 (Closing Your Account), 8 (Fees), 10 (Your Liability – Actions We May Take), 14 (Disputes with PayPal), 15 (General Provisions), and 16 (Definitions), as well as any other terms which by their nature should survive, will survive the termination of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be struck and the remaining provisions shall be enforced.
